THE SHIPPING BILL.

Its Cardinal Purposes Set Forth in the Report of the Committee.

Chairman Charles H. Grosvenor of the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries, favorably reported the amended shipping bill last Saturday, accompanied by an elaborate report pointing out its advantages to this nation. The report contains valuable statistical information which should insure favorable consideration of the bill. Mr.
 Grosvenor, in his report, points out the cardinal purposes of the bill, as follows:

1. To aid in a real practical way—and no doubt, under existing conditions, the only possible way—in bringing to the greatest extent possible, our own foreign trade back into our own hands, and thus saving to our country certainly more than $100,000,000 transportation money annually, which now goes to increase the wealth of other nations.

2. To greatly increase the exportation and sale of all kinds of our superabundant productions, and especially in the vast regions of Eastern Asia, evidently very soon to be opened to the trade of the world. This is a trade that the nation best prepared to engage in will necessarily get the greater proportion of by its own ships under its own flag, and with its own postal facilities and its own commercial establishments for the disposal of its productions.

3. To bring into existence at the earliest possible time a great American fleet of merchant vessels, built in our own country, with our own material and by our own labor, as a most necessary means of national aid and national safety in times of international war, or other disturbances, the probability of which is unhappily not small, even now.

4. To increase the number of our citizens who will be educated in seafaring work, and who will thus have the skill and be better able to defend the honor and interests of our country on the seas, however suddenly the occasion may happen.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.
 About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
 I purchased a fifty cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS.

DEEP DRAFT VESSELS.

A List of Those That Are Now Ready For Sea.

On the slate at the Bar Pilots' office to-day appears a list of vessels ready for sea—the deepest draft of any list that ever appeared on the slate—indicating that as soon as it becomes more generally known that we have sufficient water to float deep draft vessels, larger commercial vessels will seek charters here. The list is as follows:

Flagship New York, 27 feet.
 Battleship Texas, 25.6 feet.
 Russian ship Columbus, 25.2 feet.
 British steamship Cilurnum, 23 feet.
 Swedish bark Dharwar, 22.3 feet.
 Italian bark Trento, 21.6 feet.
 Italian bark Bersagliere, 21 feet.
 Norwegian bark Frigga, 20.9 feet.
 Italian bark Venezia, 21 feet.

ROWING REGATTA.

News of the Amateur Oarsmen's Coming Regatta.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat
 of yesterday says:

After all it looks as though the next annual regatta of the Southern Amateur Rowing Association will take place in Lake Pontchartrain.
 The Pensacola Boat Club was very anxious to have the regatta take place in Florida waters, but from present indications the chances are very much against it. There are five rowing clubs in New Orleans, and the special committee appointed by the association to select a place for the regatta decided that about $700 would be needed to pay the expenses of the local men to Pensacola and return. The special committee met last night. A letter from the Pensacola club was read and from the trend of it it is evident that the price asked by the local oarsmen is a little steep. The committee will address another communication to the Pensacola club.
 The committee will make its report to the association at the meeting called for Sunday, April 8.

James J. Woulfe and several other members of the committee will call on C. D. Wyman, general manager of the New Orleans and City Railroad for the purpose of asking Mr.
 Wyman to interest himself in the association.

It is not at all unlikely that the championship regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will take place in this city in 1904. James J. Woulfe, who is a delegate from the Y. M. C. C. to the association, is making a strong bid for the regatta, and he is very hopeful of success. There is a general revival of interest in aquatic sports in this city, and if the oarsmen would only show the proper spirit there would be very little trouble in securing the championship regatta for New Orleans.

We may live without love, we may live without books, But civilized man cannot live without cooks.

—Owen Meredith.

And our cooks cannot cook without the materials necessary to constitute meals. Those materials, in order to produce good, wholesome food, must be of the best quality. To procure them of the desired quality we must go to the right place for them. The right place, as everyone familiar with the subject will tell you, is Jacoby's!

What he hasn't got in the way of first-class, high-grade materials for good, wholesome, delicious food—"fit for the gods" themselves—you might put in a wheelbarrow. What he has got can scarcely be learned without visiting that wonderful place, where he keeps enough of everything good to eat to victual a warship or supply an army, and inspecting the enormous variety of household supplies of every imaginable description, displayed so that every purchaser can select at will, and all of the choicest and best to be found in any market.

This is no flight of fancy, but the plain, unvarnished truth. If you doubt it, go to 114 to 120 East Government street and be convinced.
